

GIFTS FOR WINE, BEER & SPIRITS LOVERS

We've rounded up a six-pack of gifts full of variety for beer, wine and spirits lovers.

— Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Do you have a loved one who enjoys exploring the various offerings of Pennsylvania distilleries and can never choose just one? Pick up a gift card from PA Libations, which has four locations in Pittsburgh and one in Philadelphia. The business represents nearly 20 craft distilleries, which means you can follow your bliss to everything from excellent vodka to niche cordials. ▶

Westholme Publishing

Western Pennsylvania is the birthplace of American whiskey and home to the country's first booze-based rebellion. Learn all about it from local historian Brady J. Crytzer's book "The Whiskey Rebellion: A Distilled History of an American Crisis" (Westholme Publishing, $30), which details the account of the 1790s tax rebellion by local farmers. ▲

Exploring new wine varieties and producers is much less daunting when you have someone who knows what they're doing to curate your collection. Lawrenceville's Nine O'Clock Wines offers a monthly wine club ($100) that comes with three bottles of natural wine picked for seasonal drinking. The women-owned business includes tasting notes, pairing suggestions and fun facts with each month's picks. Individual bottles are available for sale in their shop, too. ▼
